Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

Having started table tennis from the age of 5 years and competed in multiple ETTU and ITTF events, my passion for the sport has evolved over the years. Coming from a family of table tennis, with my father as a coach and brother as a player, I have grown to understand the importance of community and integrity in table tennis. As both a doctor and athlete, I believe I have the qualities suitable to be on the ETTU Athlete's commission, which I will discuss below.

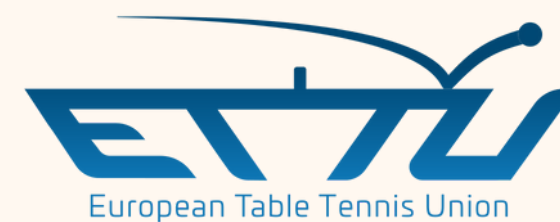

It would be an honour to have the opportunity to be on the ETTU Athlete's commission. In 2016 and 2017, I won the fair play award at the European Youth Championships and at the English National Championships respectively. I value honesty and integrity and believe that champions can be made without sacrificing these principles.

I enjoy working in a team and utilising both teamwork and leadership skills. The English women's team is currently comprised of younger players, and I was happy to lead the team to qualify for the European Championships in Zadar. I learnt that I was able to lead a team and remain positively calm in pressure situations. I hope to use these skills to be part of the growing movement of female table tennis and be a voice for the minority and all athletes.

Meet the Candidates

Able-bodied athletes

For the past 7 years, I have balanced table tennis with a medical degree and have recently graduated. Time management and organisational skills were crucial for me to be able to balance both careers, from administrative work to organising my own schedule. My comfort zone was also challenged, as I required exceptional communication skills during my hospital placements to converse with patients and other healthcare workers. I am experienced in having difficult conversations and relaying information to other members of the team. On the ETTU athlete's commission I would use these skills to voice any concerns experienced by other athletes, and also be a listening ear if anyone needs a helping hand.

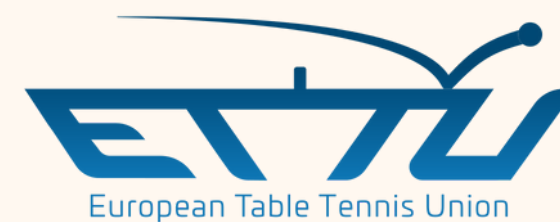

I was on the Athletes Panel for Table Tennis England from 2023–2024 which involved collating information and opinions from other table tennis players and sharing them with the panel to improve experiences and attempt to improve athlete retention. This experience opened me to other athlete's perspectives, and I learnt that everyone has their own unique experience. It is important to be empathetic and open-minded to understand other people's perspectives. I have a passion to improve the experience of table tennis for everyone.

With these skills, I hope to improve female participation in table tennis and improve opportunities for them to pursue table tennis as their full-time career. From my own experience, many female players pursue studies on the side of their sporting career. It is important that they have the opportunities in table tennis to be able to pursue it as their full-time career, as it is the passion for many. ETTU has a role in this, in their events and their systems to further improve the table tennis experience and to complement WTT events. In addition, I would also strive to improve table tennis participation in all genders and to be a support to all athletes in table tennis.

I have particularly enjoyed the ETTU events which brings European table tennis together and have made some lifelong friends throughout these years. I am proud to be European and I would love the opportunity to be a part of the future of ETTU.

DONNER
FINLAND

Date of Birth:
26/09/1982

Languages spoken: fluent Swedish, English, Russian; basic Spanish

Professional work: Medical doctor

Educational qualification: 2 university degrees: Sports teacher and Medical Doctor

Sport achievements: 5 x Singles Finnish Champion (2021–2025), Veterans (40+) Singles European (2022 & 2023) & World Champion (2023 and 2024).

Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

I hope to help keep athletes in the sport, especially females, past the age of 25–30. One way of doing that is by creating more competitions that are in the “middle” level, especially suitable for those who are just under the National Team level in their countries or in the National Teams in the small countries. A good example is Finlandia Open with the U21 and senior competitions, creating more international matches for players who don't compete on WTT level (usually due to costs). There are good competitions on the youth level (Europe Youth Series), but past the U21 there is only WTT which is very costly and usually gives you 1–2 matches only.

ETTU Athletes' Commission Election
2025

Meet the Candidates

Able-bodied athletes

Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

As a professional table tennis player who has proudly represented Europe on both national and international stages, I am highly motivated to contribute to the development of our sport as a member of the ETTU Athletes' Commission.

My vision is to help strengthen the connection between athletes and officials, ensuring that players' voices are heard and actively considered in the decision-making processes. I strongly believe that by working together, we can make ETTU competitions even more attractive, raise the profile of European table tennis, and create new opportunities for growth at all levels of our sport.

I am committed to promoting initiatives that improve support for athletes, enhance communication within the table tennis community, and contribute to the continuous development of the ETTU. My goal is to help make European table tennis bigger, stronger, and more united than ever before.

I would be honored to represent my fellow athletes and work closely with the ETTU to achieve these goals.

ETTU Athletes' Commission Election
2025

Meet the Candidates

Able-bodied athletes

Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

I am writing to express my strong interest in being elected to serve on the ETTU Athletes' Commission. This opportunity represents a meaningful step for me to deepen my engagement in the development of European table tennis, expand my knowledge of the sport's governance, and actively contribute to the advancement of athletes' interests across the continent.

Coming from a small country where table tennis is not a major sport, I understand the challenges that many mid-level and underrepresented athletes face. I am confident in my ability to bring their perspectives to the forefront and serve as a dedicated advocate for their needs and aspirations.

It would be a great honor to join the Commission and collaborate with fellow athletes to shape the future of table tennis in Europe. Thank you for considering my application—I look forward to the possibility of contributing to and learning from the valuable work of the ETTU Athletes' Commission.

Able-bodied athletes

Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

As an athlete who has dedicated her life to table tennis, I am deeply aware of the importance of a female voice in the governance of our sport.

Developing young talents through the creation of support and mentoring programs is important to ensure a smooth transition from junior to adult sports, helping athletes adapt to new challenges. Increasing the availability of information about rules, regulations, and opportunities for athletes is a priority. I plan to work on simplifying access to important information for athletes of all levels. I also aim to promote innovations in the training process and organization of competitions, introducing modern technologies and techniques that will help improve the quality of the game and conditions for athletes.

Round of 16 – World Championships 2024

Quarterfinal – European Championships 2023

Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

Dear fellow athletes,

My name is Linda Bergström, and I'm proud to stand as a candidate for the ETTU Athletes Commission. I've spent years competing in table tennis across the world, especially Europe, and I know firsthand the dedication, sacrifice, and passion it takes to perform at our best. But I also know that we, as athletes, deserve more—more support, more representation, and more influence in shaping the future of our sport.

I'm running because I want to make sure our voices are not only heard within Europe, but also at the international level. European players face unique challenges, and I believe it's time we advocate for better conditions, fairer opportunities, and stronger representation at the International Table Tennis Federation (ITTF).

If elected, I will work to:

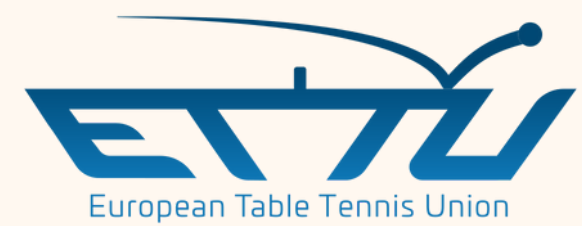

- Create open channels of communication so athletes can share concerns and ideas directly with the Commission.
- Strengthen the voice of European athletes within ETTU and ITTF decision-making.
- Push for improved conditions at tournaments—travel, scheduling, facilities, and athlete support.
- Promote gender equality and inclusion, ensuring women in table tennis have equal opportunities and visibility.

I'm not just here to represent—I'm here to act. I will listen to your concerns, fight for your interests, and work to make European table tennis as strong, fair, and united as it can be.

Let's raise our voices together. Let's build a better future for our sport

HUNTER-SPIVEY
ENGLAND

Date of Birth:
11/05/1995

Languages spoken: English

Professional work: British Para Table Tennis Performance Squad Athlete

Educational qualification: 13 A-C GCSEs; Level 1 Table Tennis Coaching Qualification

Sport achievements:

Silver – 2023 European Championships (class 5 men's singles)

Gold – 2022 Commonwealth Games Champion (class 3–5 men's singles)

Bronze – Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games (class 5 men's singles; held in 2021)

Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

I have had the privilege of competing as a professional para table tennis athlete in Class 5 for the past 12 years. Over this time, I've witnessed the sport evolve significantly and have become deeply passionate about contributing to its continued growth and development.

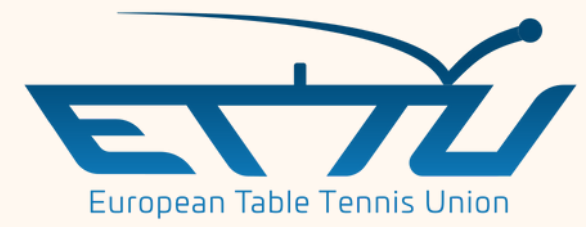

Throughout my career, I've competed in many major international competitions, proudly representing my country on the world stage. My accomplishments include winning a bronze medal at the Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games (held in 2021), a silver medal at the 2023 European Championships, and a gold medal at the 2022 Commonwealth Games.

As a full-time wheelchair user, disability inclusion is not just a passion—it's a lived experience. I regularly deliver talks and keynote speeches to some of the world's leading companies, advocating for greater inclusivity and accessibility, and sharing insights on how we can collectively build a more inclusive world for disabled people. Last year, I was also voted in as an athlete representative for British Para Table Tennis. Within this role, I have been a voice for the athletes within the BPTT squads.

With my extensive experience in para table tennis, my commitment to disability advocacy, and my dedication to pushing the sport forward, I believe I would be a strong and effective voice on the ETTU Athletes' Commission.

- Para European Championships singles Bronze & doubles Bronze 2023
- Paris 2024 Paralympian

Candidate's personal statement (what the candidate hopes to achieve on the ETTU Athletes Commission):

I would like to stand for the ETTU Athletes Commission as I feel strongly about the future of our sport and I feel that having competed on the world stage for a number of years that I have a knowledgeable grasp on the wants and needs of the athletes and personnel involved within table tennis. Personally, I have a passion for sustainability and the environment and would hopefully be able to utilize the position on the Athletes Commission to garner change moving forward to make our sport more eco-friendly alongside raising the current concerns of the athletes.

How to vote

The ETTU Athletes' Commission represents the voice of athletes within European table tennis. Five members will be elected in 2025: four from the European Championships (able-bodied athletes) and one from the European Para Table Tennis Championships (para TT athletes).

In this document, you will find photos, background information, and personal statements from each candidate.

Able-Bodied Athletes (4 positions)

Who votes: Athletes participating in all stages of the 2025 European Championships.

Voting method:

- Stage 1 (Sarajevo): Athletes from Associations that did not qualify for the Final Stage will vote online via a secure platform.
- Final Stage (Zadar): In-person voting at the competition venue.

→ Elected: The top male and top female with the highest votes are elected, followed by the next two highest-voted athletes (regardless of gender). Only one athlete per country can be elected.

Para Athletes (1 position)

Who votes: All athletes participating in the 2025 European Para Table Tennis Championships.

Voting method:

In-person voting at the competition venue in Helsingborg.

→ Elected: The para athlete with the highest number of votes is elected.
